Note

Records Management and Archives is the official repository for the archival records of Concordia University and of its two founding institutions, Loyola College and Sir George Williams University. It also collects archival material produced by faculty, staff, students alumni, as well as all archival material documenting the history of Concordia and its two founding institutions.

The department has its origins in the opening of the Archives and Records Department at Loyola College, in Fall 1973.

Custodial history

The photograph was donated to the Concordia University Archives by Jocelyne Wilson-Patenaude, who had accidentally found it among trash, in 2000. The fonds was transferred from Concordia University's Records Management and Archives Department to Concordia University Libraries' Special Collections April 6, 2016.

Scope and content

The fonds consists of an 1896 photograph of the choir of St. Patrick's Church, Montreal.
